Previous winners included a Hungarian Vizsla who was imported from Australia who went on to win Supreme Champion at Crufts and a working group winner, a Rottweiler who was a New Zealand Champion and import to the UK.

The show also boasts another best of show winner at Crufts, a Clumber Spaniel who had previously won the gundog group at the Belfast Show with many other top winners at Crufts having competed & qualified at the Belfast Championship Show.

The organiser's this year wish to build on this success and aim to make the 2022 Championship Show a real European event.
